

New Adult Books

April 2024

Books may be reserved by phone or online at www.prospectlibrary.com

Prospect Public Library

17 Center Street, Prospect, CT 06712

(203) 758-3001

Fiction

If you like John Grisham, you may like:

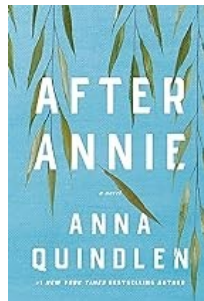

THE #1 LAWYER

By James Patterson and Nancy Allen

A lawyer who has never lost a case finds his life unraveling when he is accused of murder.

If you like family life fiction, you may like:

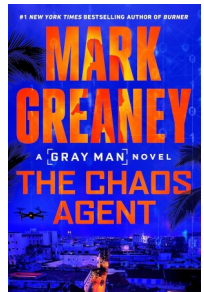

AFTER ANNIE

By Anna Quindlen

A 37-year-old wife and mother dies suddenly but lives on in the minds of those who knew and loved her as they struggle through their first year without the person who was the focal point of their lives.

If you like international thrillers, you may like:

THE CHAOS AGENT

By Mark Greaney

In Gray Man number 13, the Gray Man's quiet new life in Central America is interrupted by a request to rescue a Russian scientist who is on a hit list of robotics and artificial intelligence experts. The Gray Man rejects this mission, but he has already been seen by assassins who will be lying in wait for him around every corner.

Fiction

If you like magical realism, you may like:

EXPIRATION DATES

By Rebecca Serle

Every time Daphne meets a new man, she mysteriously receives a piece of paper with the amount of time they will spend together. But what happens when she meets a man, and the piece of paper is missing the relationship's expiration date?

If you like fantasy fiction, you may like:

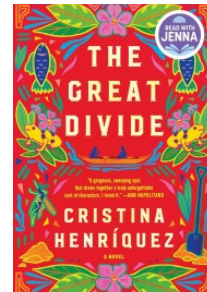

FOURTH WING

By Rebecca Yarros

Book one in the Empyrean series, now updated with two bonus chapters. Fourth Wing follows the adventures of Violet, a dragon rider in training, as she navigates her dangerous occupation and those who would kill her to take her place.

If you like historical fiction, you may like:

THE GREAT DIVIDE

By Cristina Henríquez

The latest Read with Jenna book club selection is a novel about the building of the Panama Canal in the early 1900s and the effects it had on people's lives.

Fiction

If you like domestic thrillers, you may like:

THE GUEST

By B. A. Paris

With a troubled friend who refuses to leave their home, a gardener with a past, and a ton of secrets coming out about all of them, Iris and Gabriel not only have their hands full, but could even be in mortal danger.

If you like horror, you may like:

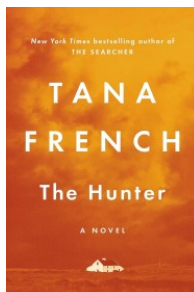

A HAUNTING ON THE HILL

By Elizabeth Hand

A playwright and her friend invite a group of actors to spend a month rehearsing her play in a haunted mansion. What could possibly go wrong?

If you like Irish crime fiction, you may like:

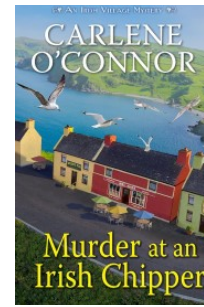

THE HUNTER

By Tana French

Cal Hooper, a retired Chicago police officer, moves to rural Ireland for some peace. But then a murder takes place which rocks the foundation of the new life he has built.

Fiction

If you like amateur sleuths, you may like:

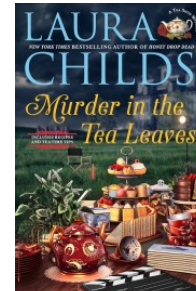

MURDER AT AN IRISH CHIPPER

By Carlene O'Connor

In the latest installment of the Irish Village Mysteries, an Irish couple's honeymoon is interrupted by a murder, which they set out to solve before they live happily ever after.

If you like cozy mystery series, you may like:

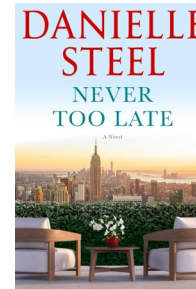

MURDER IN THE TEA LEAVES

By Laura Childs

The 27th Tea Shop Mystery may be Theodosia's most compelling case yet, as Murder in the Tea Leaves takes her to a fortune telling gig at a haunted manor, where she will witness and investigate the bizarrely theatrical death of a movie director.

If you like domestic life fiction, you may like:

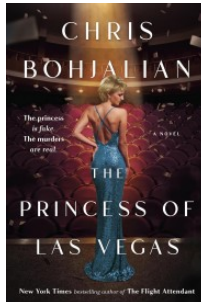

NEVER TOO LATE

By Danielle Steel

A recently widowed woman and her movie-star neighbor strike up a friendship while volunteering during a crisis in New York City.

Fiction

If you like psychological thrillers, you may like:

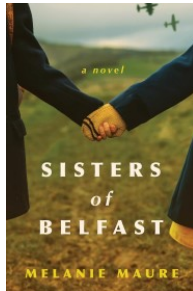

THE PRINCESS OF LAS VEGAS

By Chris Bohjalian

When a Princess Diana impersonator meets a handsome and mysterious Russian stranger, she finds herself drawn into a web of intrigue and danger.

If you like historical fiction, you may like:

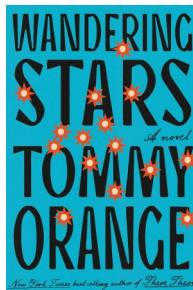

SISTERS OF BELFAST

By Melanie Maure

Twins who were orphaned during World War II grow up, grow apart, and meet again by chance years later.

If you like Native American family sagas, you may like:

WANDERING STARS

By Tommy Orange

The celebrated author of the 2019 Pulitzer Prize finalist There There goes back in time to tell the story of the ancestors of the characters in There There and the lasting effects of the genocide and cultural erasure they experienced as Native Americans.

Fiction

If you liked Enemy Women by Paulette Jiles, you may like:

WHEN THE JESSAMINE GROWS

By Donna Everhart

A Southern woman struggling to run the family farm during the Civil War is shunned for her refusal to support the Confederacy's position on slavery, but the most brutal challenges she will face are yet to come.

If you like psychological suspense thrillers, you may like:

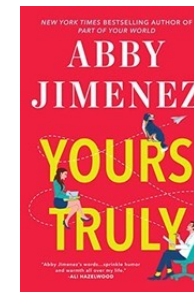

THE WILD SIDE

By Fern Michaels

A school guidance counselor is pulled back into her former investigative career, taking on a risky undercover assignment as an escort in order to take down a group of ruthless international billionaires.

If you like romantic comedy, you may like:

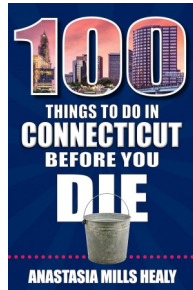

YOURS TRULY

By Abby Jimenez

A recently divorced doctor finds to her surprise that the annoying new doctor at work might actually be a great guy.

Nonfiction

If you liked Connecticut Bucket List by Tom Wilkens, you may like:

100 THINGS TO DO IN CONNECTICUT BEFORE YOU DIE
By Anastasia Mills Healy
917.46 HEA

Take a hike with life-size dinosaurs, learn about Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s time in Connecticut, walk through a reconstructed 16th-century Native American village, pick your own produce, learn about Connecticut's state heroine, interact with animals, and ride a steam train: These are just a few of the things you can do in Connecticut.

If you liked 50 Hikes in Connecticut by Mary Anne Hardy, you may like:

AMC'S BEST DAY HIKES IN CONNECTICUT AND RHODE ISLAND: FOUR-SEASON GUIDE TO 60 OF THE BEST TRAILS FROM THE HIGHLANDS TO THE COAST
By Steve Fagin, René Laubach, and Charles W.G. Smith
796.51 FAG

Each hike includes a detailed map and information on time, distance, and skill level; plus whether or not the hike is wheelchair accessible, near public transportation, for kids, and for dogs.

If you liked Whispers of the Gods by Peter Golenbock, you may like:

BASEBALL HEAVEN: UP CLOSE AND PERSONAL, WHAT IT WAS REALLY LIKE IN THE MAJOR LEAGUES
By Peter Golenbock
920 GOL

Baseball legends look back on their careers in the sequel to Whispers of the Gods. Includes interviews with Gary Carter, Ralph Branca, Elston Howard, Johnny Pesky, Elden Auker, Dock Ellis, Del Webb, and more.

Nonfiction

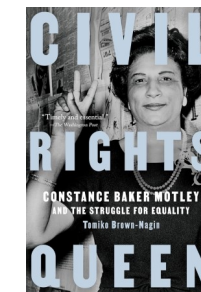

If you like memoirs of people with disabilities, you may like:

BOLD, BRAVE, AND BREATHLESS
By Margaret Anne Mary Moore
B MOORE

A memoir of a childhood filled with adventures, Girl Scouts, soccer, and school, by a woman who refused to let Cerebral Palsy limit her.

If you liked Equal Justice Under Law by Constance Baker Motley, you may like:

CIVIL RIGHTS QUEEN: CONSTANCE BAKER MOTLEY AND THE STRUGGLE FOR EQUALITY
By Tomiko Brown-Nagin
B MOTLEY

The story of the pioneering lawyer and federal judge who argued key civil rights cases such as Brown vs. The Board of Education.

If you liked The Final Witness by Paul Landis, you may like:

FIVE DAYS IN NOVEMBER
By Clint Hill with Lisa McCubbin Hill
973.922 HIL

The retired Secret Service agent famous for jumping on the back of President Kennedy's limousine shares his memories of the days surrounding the assassination through over 150 photos, each accompanied by his personal account. This 60th anniversary edition of the 2013 bestseller also contains a new afterward.

Nonfiction

If you like dogs, sports, and biology, you may like:

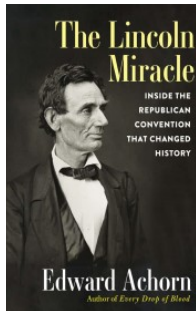

FOUR THOUSAND PAWS: CARING FOR THE DOGS OF THE IDITAROD: A VETERINARIAN'S STORY

By Lee Morgan
636.73 MOR

A veterinarian gives a behind-the-scenes account of the huskies who compete in the Iditarod Trail Sled Dog Race in Alaska.

If you liked Lincoln at Cooper Union by Harold Holzer, you may like:

THE LINCOLN MIRACLE: INSIDE THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION THAT CHANGED HISTORY

By Edward Achorn
324.973 ACH

A celebrated author takes readers back to a dramatic time in history — the 1860 Chicago convention where Abraham Lincoln shocked everyone by being nominated as the Republican candidate for president. 2023 winner of the Harold Holzer Lincoln Forum Book Prize.

If you liked The Crown in Crisis by Alexander Larman, you may like:

ONCE A KING: THE LOST MEMOIR OF EDWARD VIII

By Jane Marguerite Tippett
B WINDSOR

The story of the 20th-century British king who abdicated the throne to marry an American woman.

Nonfiction

If you liked The Power of the Sea by Bruce B. Parker, you may like:

OUR MOON: HOW EARTH'S CELESTIAL COMPANION TRANSFORMED THE PLANET, GUIDED EVOLUTION, AND MADE US WHO WE ARE

By Rebecca Boyle
523.3 BOY

Learn about the moon's fascinating role in history, religion, science, and more.

If you liked Asian food and culture, you may like:

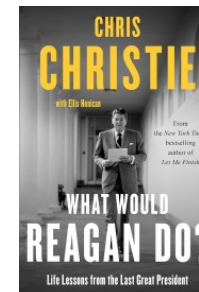

SLOW NOODLES: A CAMBODIAN MEMOIR OF LOVE, LOSS, AND FAMILY RECIPES

By Chantha Nguon with Kim Green
B NGUON

A Cambodian refugee who lost everything but her memories to the genocidal dictator Pol Pot honors her heritage by sharing the recipes her mother used to cook for her.

If you liked Leadership by Henry Kissinger, you may like:

WHAT WOULD REAGAN DO?: LIFE LESSONS FROM THE LAST GREAT PRESIDENT

By Chris Christie with Ellis Henican
973.927 CHR

The former governor of New Jersey illustrates leadership principles for today's politicians with stories from Reagan's presidency.

Large Print

If you like family life fiction, you may like:

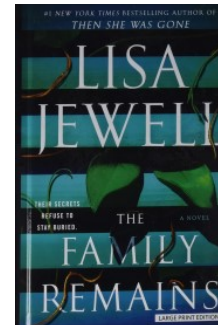

AFTER ANNIE
By Anna Quindlen

A 37-year-old wife and mother dies suddenly but lives on in the minds of those who knew and loved her as they struggle through their first year without the person who was the focal point of their lives.

Large Print

If you like domestic suspense, you may like:

THE FAMILY REMAINS
By Lisa Jewell

Find out what happened to The Family Upstairs in this sequel which picks up a year after the events of the previous novel.

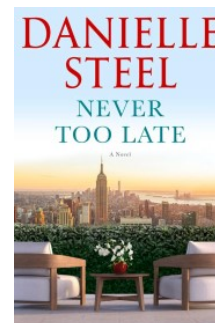

If you like Irish crime fiction, you may like:

THE HUNTER
By Tana Hunter

Cal Hooper, a retired Chicago police officer, moves to rural Ireland for some peace. But then a murder takes place which rocks the foundation of the new life he has built.

If you like domestic life fiction, you may like:

NEVER TOO LATE
By Danielle Steel

A recently widowed woman and her movie-star neighbor strike up a friendship while volunteering during a crisis in New York City.