

New Adult Books

May 2025

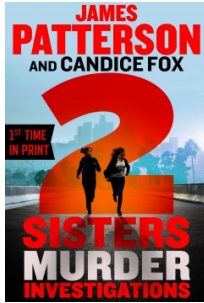

Prospect Public Library
17 Center Street, Prospect, CT 06712
(203) 758-3001

Books may be reserved by phone or online at www.prospectlibrary.com

Fiction

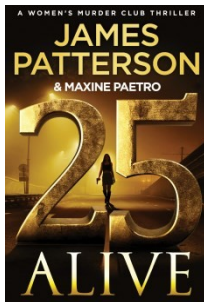

If you like private investigators, you may like:

2 SISTERS MURDER INVESTIGATIONS
By James Patterson and Candice Fox

Two sisters who have little in common other than their willingness to fight for the underdog and for the truth join forces for a controversial missing persons case.

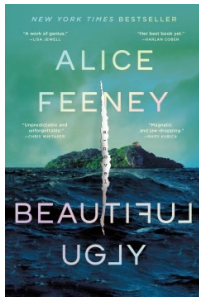

If you like detective series, you may like:

25 ALIVE
By James Patterson and Maxine Paetro

Sergeant Lindsay Boxer and her team investigate the shocking murder of her former partner, intending to find the killer before he can take down another police officer. Number 25 in the Women's Murder Club series.

If you like domestic thrillers, you may like:

BEAUTIFUL UGLY
By Alice Feeney

A grieving man runs into a woman who bears a suspicious resemblance to his wife, who is presumed deceased.

Fiction

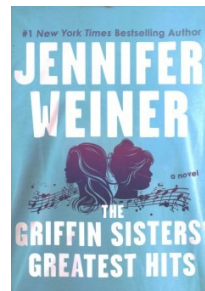

If you like romantic comedy, you may like:

GREAT BIG BEAUTIFUL LIE
By Emily Henry

Opposites attract in this story of two writers in competition with each other for the chance to write a biography about an elusive subject. A Reese's Book Club pick.

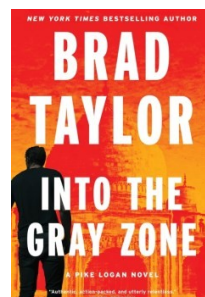

If you like family life and pop music culture, you may like:

THE GRIFFIN SISTERS' GREATEST HITS
By Jennifer Weiner

Wiener explores the family life of two sisters who were once in a band, and the lasting effects of fame.

If you like military thrillers, you may like:

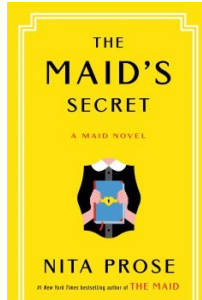

INTO THE GRAY ZONE
By Brad Taylor

Another exciting mission for Pike and his team: this time, they investigate terrorists and plan the rescue of hostages in India. Book 19 in the Pike Logan series.

Fiction

If you like detective and mystery series, you may like:

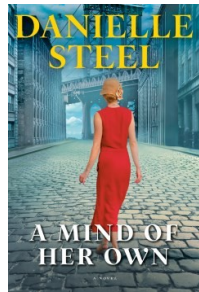

THE MAID'S SECRET

By Nita Prose

Book three in the Molly the Maid series. When Molly discovers a priceless treasure in a collection of trinkets, a mystery from long ago is brought back into focus to intertwine with a present-day mystery, a heist, and a media storm.

If you like historical fiction, you may like:

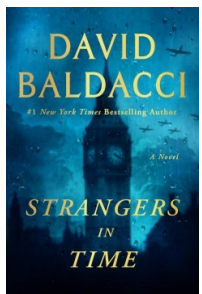

A MIND OF HER OWN

By Danielle Steel

A half-French, half-American woman comes of age in Paris and Chicago against the backdrop of World War I and Prohibition.

If you like historical fiction, you may like:

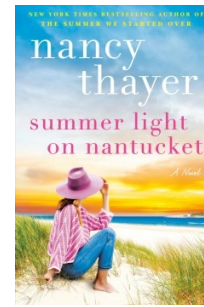

STRANGERS IN TIME

By David Baldacci

A widower and two disadvantaged teenagers form a bond in 1944 London which may save their lives.

Fiction

If you like contemporary domestic/romantic fiction, you may like:

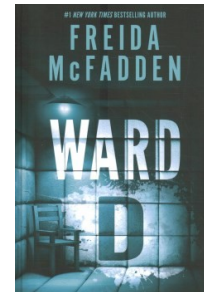

SUMMER LIGHT ON NANTUCKET

By Nancy Thayer

A middle school teacher with four kids explores new romantic possibilities after her divorce while spending a summer on the beach.

If you like suspense thrillers, you may like:

WARD D

By Freida McFadden

A medical student is assigned to work the night shift in the mental health ward. Will she make it out alive?

If you like family historical fiction, you may like:

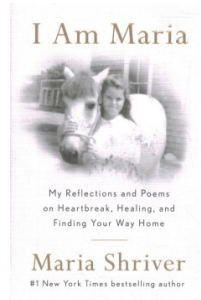

THE WORLD'S FAIR QUILT

By Jennifer Chiaverini

The owner of a quilter's retreat recounts the history behind her prized quilt as she prepares to have it displayed for the local historical society.

Nonfiction

If you liked Just Who Will You Be? By Maria Shriver, you may like:

I AM MARIA: MY REFLECTIONS AND POEMS ON HEARTBREAK, HEALING, AND FINDING YOUR WAY HOME

By Maria Shriver

811.6 (MCNAUGHTON)

Reflections and poems of discovery, love, and hope alongside the topics mentioned in the title.

If you like the Beatles, you may like:

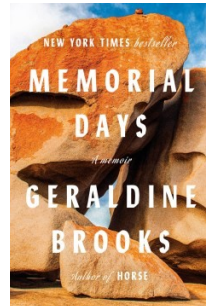

JOHN & PAUL: A LOVE STORY IN SONGS

By Ian Leslie

782.421 LES (MCNAUGHTON)

An acclaimed British writer goes behind the scenes to tell the story of one of the most famous songwriting partnerships of all time.

If you liked The Year of Magical Thinking by Joan Didion, you may like:

MEMORIAL DAYS

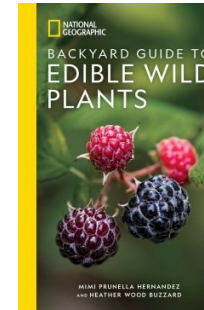

By Geraldine Brooks

B BROOKS

A memoir of the loss of her husband by the Pulitzer Prize-winning author of March and Horse.

Nonfiction

If you like foraging, you may like:

NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC BACKYARD GUIDE TO EDIBLE WILD PLANTS

By Mimi Prunella Hernandez

581.632 HER

Know what is safe to pick for eating or home remedies while foraging through your backyard.

If you liked Difficult Conversations by Douglas Stone, you may like:

THE NEXT CONVERSATION: ARGUE LESS, TALK MORE

By Jefferson Fisher

153.6 FIS

Improve your conversation skills with practical, real-world advice from a communications expert.

If you like Neil deGrasse Tyson, you may like:

SIMPLY PHYSICS

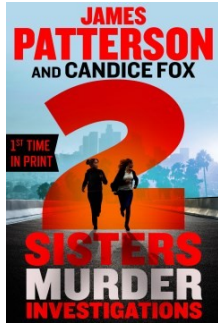

By Jack Challoner

530 CHA

Basic concepts in physics broken down and described in everyday language with copious illustrations.

Large Print

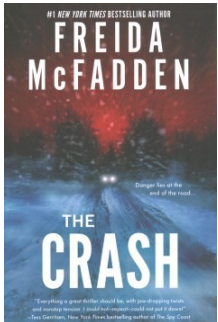

If you like private investigators, you may like:

2 SISTERS MURDER INVESTIGATIONS
By James Patterson and Candice Fox

Two sisters who have little in common other than their willingness to fight for the underdog and for the truth join forces for a controversial missing persons case.

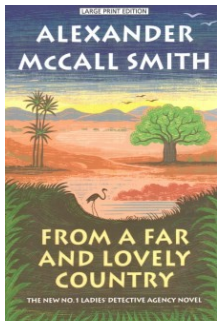

If you like psychological thrillers, you may like:

THE CRASH
By Freida McFadden

Having been stranded in a blizzard, a young woman is taken in by a couple. But she is in grave danger...

If you like amateur sleuth series, you may like:

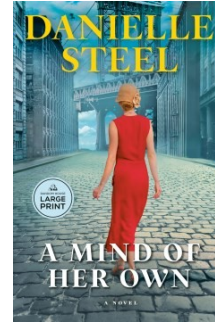

FROM A FAR AND LOVELY COUNTRY
By Alexander McCall Smith

In book 24 in the No. 1 Ladies' Detective Agency Series, Mma Ramotswe divides her attention between two cases: one involving a phony singles club, the other involving an American woman looking for her family in Botswana.

Large Print

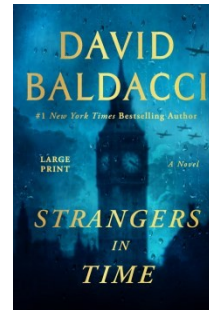

If you like historical fiction, you may like:

A MIND OF HER OWN
By Danielle Steel

A half-French, half-American woman comes of age in Paris and Chicago against the backdrop of World War I and Prohibition.

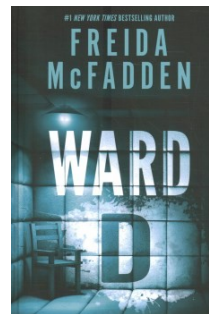

If you like historical fiction, you may like:

STRANGERS IN TIME
By David Baldacci

A widower and two disadvantaged teenagers form a bond in 1944 London which may save their lives.

If you like suspense thrillers, you may like:

WARD D
By Freida McFadden

A medical student is assigned to work the night shift in the mental health ward. Will she make it out alive?